

RUSSIAN 122
BASIC PROFICIENCY IN RUSSIAN

BULLETIN INFORMATION

RUSS 122 - Basic Proficiency in Russian (4 credit hours)

Course Description:

Practice and further development of essential listening, reading, speaking, and writing skills.

Prerequisites: RUSS 121

SAMPLE COURSE OVERVIEW

This course will continue to introduce students to the Russian language by focusing on the four essential language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students will build on the basic skills acquired in RUSS 121. Students will gain confidence and proficiency in specific communicative tasks and will develop further their understanding of the structure of the Russian language and the culture of the Russian people, with an emphasis on using language in its cultural context.

ITEMIZED LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of Russian 122 students will be able to:

1. Communication
 - a. Communicate using complete sentences in writing and speech to express immediate needs and interests
 - b. Express possession, attribution, and absence or nonexistence
 - c. Demonstrate use of the future and past tenses, including "be"
 - d. Demonstrate use of "going" verbs in additional contexts
 - e. Express necessity and possibility
 - f. Demonstrate employment of basic time expressions
 - g. Demonstrate comprehension of and use with accuracy all six cases
 - h. Demonstrate comprehension of and use the basics of verbal aspect.
2. Culture
 - a. Demonstrate understanding of the essentials of "small-c" culture necessary to function in Russia, including making and responding to invitations; family roles and personal characteristics (age, resemblances, employment); enrolling and graduating from schools; shopping; restaurants; and living conditions.

- b. Describe more complex aspects of Russia's cultural heritage, including Russian folksongs, the role of poetry in Russian culture, and well-known figures such as the poet Aleksandr Pushkin, the songwriter Bulat Okudzhava, and the Tolstoy family.
3. Connections
 - a. Demonstrate more advanced understanding of Russian society, family life, housing, education, daily rituals, and culture.
 4. Comparisons
 - a. Make conclusions about their own language and culture, as they compare family structures, foods and home décor, cultural figures, and shops and restaurants, along with other aspects of Russian and American life.
 5. Communities
 - a. Participate in experiences that increase understanding of Russian life and the Russian-speaking world.
